The Framework

The courses include relevant Krav MaGa, shooting range*, urban and CQB training sessions. Close protection officers learn how to integrate defensive tactics training with other necessary skills, in order to safely and competently complete multifaceted missions under stressful and dangerous conditions.

With indoor and outdoor training, simulations and scenario-based training, course participants are elevated to the highest possible level - mentally, physically, technically and tactically.

Firearms Policies

Every jurisdiction - local, state and federal - has its own firearms policies. Krav Maga Global will not override those regulations. KMG enhances trainees' knowledge of defensive tactics (without firearms and with firearms as an impact weapon) in full accordance with relevant firearms policies.

The Organization

Krav Maga Global is the most professional and internationally active organization in its field, with activities in Western and Eastern Europe, the UK, North and South America, Southeast Asia, Australia and Oceania. We offer education, training, insight and problem solving based on decades of field research and experience in Israel and around the world.
